A WEBLYTICA CO-BUILDING OFFER

Your Voice, Captured

AI writing sounds like AI, until you teach it how you actually talk. In one guided interview we capture your tone, your phrases, and your rules, and turn them into a voice guide any AI can follow.

HOW THE OFFER WORKS

1 The Interview
A relaxed recorded conversation about your business: how you explain things, what you say, what you never say.

2 Build the Voice Guide
We distill the interview into a written guide: tone, phrasing, and examples pulled from your own words.

3 Test It Against Real Writing
We draft emails and posts with and without the guide, side by side, until the difference is obvious.

4 Apply It Everywhere
The guide goes into your AI setup so email, proposals, and marketing all come out sounding like you.

THE VOICE GUIDE

What We Capture

- The words and phrases you naturally use
- How you open, close, and sign off
- What you refuse to sound like

Your voice, written down for the first time.

Where You Use It

- Customer emails and follow-ups
- Proposals, quotes, and website copy
- Social posts and marketing that sound human

One guide, every channel.

WHAT YOU WALK AWAY WITH

- ✓ A written voice guide built from your own words
- ✓ Consistency across everyone who writes for the business
- ✓ AI drafts that no longer need a rewrite
- ✓ A document you own and reuse with any AI tool

HOW SESSIONS WORK

One recorded interview session, then a working session to test and refine the guide on your real writing. Everything is built from your own words, never a template. No technical background required.

Ready to Sound Like Yourself Everywhere?

We build with you, not for you.
